MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Mr. Dulles' telephone conversation with General Christiansen, 7 December 1954

Mr. Dulles telephoned General Christiansen at 9:15 A.M. to confirm that General Clark would be in Washington today and Wednesday and that he would make himself available at any time if General Clark wished to see him. Mr. Dulles explained that he had OCB on Wednesdays from 12:30 to about 4 P.M., but that he would make himself available at that time if General Clark wished.

General Christiansen stated that he understood General Clark would arrive today at either 11 A. M. or 2 P.M. (he was checking with General Ridgway's office) and that he understood he planned to leave about 2 P.M. on Wednesday, so he felt that General Clark would not need to interfere with the OCB meeting if he wished to see Mr. Dulles (General Christiansen stated that he no doubt would come with General Clark if he called on Mr. Dulles).

Mr. Dulles asked General Christiansen if they were getting everything they needed and General Christiansen said they were. Mr. Dulles said he had several memoranda on reorganization which he wished to pass to the Committee.
